DETAILED ACTION

1. This office action is in response to the amendment filed October 30, 2008 in application 10/735, 412.
2. Examiner acknowledged that claims 31-35 are presented for examination. Claims 1-30 are cancelled.

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

3. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 30 October 2008 has been entered.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 31-35 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for the allowance: Examiner deems claims 31-35 as novel when read as a whole for the limitations of a method of analyzing events occurring on a distributed network comprising a plurality of processors, the method comprising:

during offline processing: computing conditional probability values into a probability table, said probability values comprising joint probability values reflecting a probability that a sequence of two or more non-critical events happen before the critical event occurs; periodically updating the probability table; periodically examining the probability table to determine when online analysis of the non-critical event is possible; and during online processing: loading the conditional probability table and the event masks computed from offline analysis; determining that the probability of the occurrence of the critical event has surpassed a threshold level using the conditional probability table; migrating a process away from the critical event if it is determined that a timeout period has not elapsed; and if the time out period has elapsed: reload the conditional probability tables.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
